Have you tried a "Daisy" Ham? If not why not? Mrs. Ida W. Clements of Covington has qualified as Executrix of the late W. W. Clements, the well known C. and O. Engineer.

For a few hours at Covington Miss Lide Matthews, a former Maysville lady, was the loser of $60 in cash and $1,200 in diamonds. After the police had been called in they were found in a chamois bag on the floor—just where the bag had been dropped.

This morning he was taken to the Asylum at Lexington. Wright became insane a few days ago, and had to be removed for treatment.

Dr. J. James Wood will have completed 49 years in the drug business July 1st. The Doctor's long and continuous service certainly entitles him to a rest, and while he has not retired from business altogether he is letting the younger member of the firm assume some of the responsibility while he spends more of his time at his delightful suburban home. May he live many years to enjoy it.

SCHOOL HAS CLOSED

Hayswood Finishes Its Commencement Exercises Last Evening

The last and the best of the exercises marking the close of the 1903-4 session of Hayswood Seminary was the Commencement at the First Presbyterian Church last evening.

There were three young ladies to graduate this year—Misses Scotta Worthington, Edith Davis and Amy Calhoun, and a vast audience was present to enjoy the program, as follows—

- Invocation
- Quartette—Semiramis.....Rossini
- Misses Archdeacon, Morgan, Yancey, Worthington
- Piano Solo—Arabesque.....Andree
- Miss Fattie Carr
- Essay—Our 20th Century Maiden.....Miss Scotta Worthington
- Piano Solo—The Trout.....Schubert
- Miss Beattie Morgan
- Essay—Silent Teachers.....Miss Edith Davis
- Song—Ernani (Violin Obligato, Miss Archdeacon).....Verdi
- Miss Nellie Clark
- Essay—One Today is Worth Two Tomorrows.....Miss Amy Calhoun
- Piano Solo—March in D flat.....Hollaender
- Miss Edith Tucker
- Delivery of Diplomas and Awards.....Rev. Wm. R. McEwan, D. D.
- Piano Solo—La Campanella.....Liszt
- Miss Frances Barbour
- Benediction

The three graduates are among Maysville and Mason county's loveliest young ladies. Their essays evidenced special care and thought and redounded to the honor of the institution of learning which the class represented.

The Rev. Dr. McEwan of Pittsburgh presented the Diplomas and made a few appropriate remarks to the class.

Besides those completing the regular course, Miss Ethel Tucker finished in the department of music, and Miss Edith Biggers was given an award for not having missed a recitation during the entire year—a most gratifying record.

A prominent feature in the evening's exercises was the smoothness in which the program was rendered, each pupil so ably taking her part.

The young graduates were laden with flowers and presents from their many admiring friends.

THAT'S THE LEDGER. The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage says— "A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as newspapers well patronized, and this power should be appreciated."

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get out our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it. HAVE THE DAVIS PRINTING HOUSE PRINT IT. PUBLIC LEDGER BUILDING.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Harriett Johnson was the charming hostess of a delightful affair at her hospitable home in West Fourth street last evening, entertaining in honor of Miss Elizabeth Wall Fennell, the bride-elect, and her Maid of Honor, Miss Bertha Matthews of New York.

As are all the social events which take place at this home, the occasion was one of special delight, the favored guests spending an evening of unalloyed pleasure.

Circuit Court.

Circuit Court convened yesterday. The following gentlemen compose the Grand Jury—John W. Early, Foreman; W. W. Gault, Thomas Mackey, Peter Cook, James Runion, George Atkinson, C. C. Arthur, Charles Hunter, Dan Maher, R. J. Gaither, James S. Bratton, Thomas Downing.

"PEGLEG" THE BEAUTIFUL

His Face Looked a Map of Russo-Japanese Battlefield

The Honorable Philip Courtney, well known as "Sailor Pegleg," who raised so many kinds of Hell Saturday night, and whose face and scalp were so beautifully frescoed by Officer Ort's club, was before Judge Whitaker last afternoon, in order that the Court might assess the damages which "Peg" had inflicted against the law.

When the distinguished snoozer was conducted into Court, his head was incased in a broad bandage, liberally flowered with rich, red blood, while his nose was spanned by a pontoon bridge of courtplaster, and for all the world he looked the hero of a bout with a threshing machine.

Of course, according to his story, all the witnesses against him were liars, and as he was full of mean whisky at the time of his antics, he was the only one who really knew what he did and how he did it.

Several times he "called the witnesses down," and it was with difficulty—and unwarranted patience—that the Court suppressed him.

"Peg" was severe in his denunciation of his warm reception at the hands of the Maysville police—unmindful of the fact that every citizen would rejoice if he would shake the dust of the town from his good foot—and never come back.

Judge Whitaker held up his decision till this morning, when he assessed him $20 and costs for disorderly conduct and $50 and costs for resisting an officer.

How are you, "Pegleg?"

Hawley and Leslie will give a song and dance sketch in the Williams and Weis Amusement Company's entertainment at Opera-house this evening. These gifted people have played at the Columbia, Cincinnati; Keith's, Boston; Philadelphia, New York and all leading Vaudeville houses all over the country. Miss Leslie is a Maysvillian.

THOMAS LYSTON. Mr. Thomas Lyston died Sunday at his home on Jersey Ridge, after a lingering illness.

He is survived by his wife, one son and one daughter.

The interment was in Washington Cemetery this morning, after services by the Rev. P. M. Jones at St. Patrick's Church.

William Longbottom and John Abner, a couple of toughs from Nicholas county, terrorized Paris Saturday. They shot a Negro boy through the breast and the atmosphere full of holes. The former may die. At last accounts Mr. L. bottom had actually been arrested.

It is the general opinion that Governor Beckham, Senators Blackburn and McCreary and probably Congressman Ollie James will be Kentucky's "Big Four" to the Democratic National Convention. The unit rule will be invoked to govern the delegation, which may be instructed for Judge Parker for President.

The Children's Day exercises at the Central Presbyterian Church Sunday afternoon were greatly enjoyed by a large congregation. The theme of the whole was "The Good Shepherd and His Lambs" and the recitations and tableaux groupings were beautiful. Much credit is due Miss Ella Wallace and her helpers, Miss Mary Wood, Miss Nettie Newell and Mr. S. A. Shanklin for their work in making the occasion so successful. Mr. Austin and his sister and Mr. Muse assisted the regular choir in the music.

THE Democrats of Kentucky are still in the ring.

AFTER all, it's only the fellow who isn't in the ring that wants to form one of his own.

THE agricultural sharps say the condition of cotton is good;—much better, perhaps, than that of most of the fellows who have been wrestling with the market.

It was, to say the least, a doubtful compliment to the intelligence of the people of the Second Magisterial District to defeat Captain JACOB MILLER with a man whose only recommendation was that he was a Democrat.

THE presence of the Negro in the Grand Army Post is creating considerable bitterness and dissatisfaction in Kentucky. The fact is, the Republicans of Kentucky—who constitute the major portion of the Grand Army Posts—have little use for the Negro socially or any other way, except they love to see him vote their ticket on election day. It seems to take the Negro a long while to find it out, but he will perhaps some day come to that point of political independence and thoughtful discernment which will endow him with a full knowledge of his true standing upon all lines which pertain to his race and personality.—Hartford Herald.

And it may be added that the chief opposition to the Negro on the part of Democrats lies in the fact that he does not, as a rule, vote the Democratic ticket. Whenever he does, however, the Negro is a fine fellow; and in Lexington some months ago a whole lot of high Democratic officials ate, drank and got merry at a 'possum supper and beer fest given by a couple of Negro Democratic politicians.

FOLLOWING the late Chicago plan, the Union livery drivers in Cincinnati refuse to attend funerals where non-Union drivers appear in charge of teams. If this thing keeps up, it won't be long until a fellow will have to walk to his own funeral.

AT South Bethlehem, Pa., GEORGE SHERRY played the piano for 26½ hours, when he was put to bed by a Doctor who had been constantly at his side giving him nourishment, chafing his swollen wrists and arms and refreshing him with applications and cold lotions. What had to be done to the neighbors is not stated.

Two young men, 23 years of age, and house movers by trade, have just accomplished an extraordinary feat of engineering. They have successfully moved a 300,000-pound steel oil tank down a steep hill to the Allegheny river, transported it a mile down the river on barges and placed it on a bank 200 feet high.

The monster tank was sunk seven feet in the ground and had to be raised before it could be moved forward an inch. The five tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad had to be crossed, and the railroad company gave the movers only forty minutes to get from one side to the other.

This is said by The Scientific American to have been one of the greatest tasks ever accomplished by any house mover. The work was done by twenty-four men and two horses in six weeks.

HAYSWOOD SEMINARY

Baccalaureate Sermon Preached to Graduates Sunday Evening.

The first Presbyterian Church was filled Sunday night with a large and attentive audience to hear the Baccalaureate Sermon of Hayswood Seminary. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. McEwen of Pittsburgh. The text was taken from the last clause of the eighth verse of the fourth chapter of Philippians. "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

The speaker presented in a clear and forcible manner that the first necessity in an education was the ability to think clearly, and that this power of forming true and high ideals, when consecrated by the Christian life, had for its outcome the loveliest type of womanhood.

Miss Florence Hays sang a beautiful solo entitled, "Love Not the World."

EARLY BIRDS

West End Hoboes Take Breakfast With the Break of Day

The doorbell rang at a West End residence at 4:30 yesterday morning.

In response to the call, "What is wanted?" came the reply, "Something to eat."

The occupants prepared a luncheon for the wayfarers, and going to the door found a couple of as tough-looking girls as you'd find in Ujijii, aged about 10 and 17 respectively.

The little one was barefooted and bareheaded, the larger one barefooted only;—but the clothing on both wouldn't wad a squirrel rifle.

They said they were just walking along the railroad—declining to answer any questions as to their previous, present or projected residence—only "just walking along the railroad."

Unless the City Council takes some step to protect the West End citizens from the nocturnal visits and ravages of hoboes, the residents of that section will be obliged to adopt measures that may not be exactly lawful; but self-preservation, &c.

On account of the numberless freight trains stopping at the West End Station, each carrying its complement of bumper passengers, the people of the surrounding territory are more sorely afflicted than those of any other part of the city.

the Skin, Scalp, Hair and Hands.

Socrates called beauty a short-lived tyranny, Plato a privilege of nature, Theocritus, a delightful prejudice, Theophrastus a silent cheat, Carneades a solitary kingdom, Homer a glorious gift of nature, Ovid a favor of the gods. Aristotle affirmed that beauty was better than all the letters of recommendation in the world, and yet none of these distinguished authorities has left us even a hint of how beauty is to be perpetuated, or the ravages of age and disease defied. Time soon blends the lily and the rose into the pallor of age, disease dots the fair face with cutaneous disfigurements and crimson the Roman nose with unsightly flushes, moth, if not rest, corrupts the glory of eyes, teeth, and lips yet beautiful by defacing the complexion, and fills the sensitive soul with agony. If such be the unhappy condition of one afflicted with slight skin blemishes, what must be the feelings of those in whom torturing humors have for years run riot, covering the skin with scales and sores and charging the blood with poisonous elements to become a part of the system until death? It is in the treatment of torturing, disfiguring humors and affections of the skin, scalp and blood, with loss of hair, that the Cuticura remedies have achieved their greatest success. Original in composition, scientifically compounded, absolutely pure, unchangeable in any climate, always ready, and agreeable to the most delicate and sensitive, they present to young and old the most successful curatives of modern times.

Preliminary steps have taken by the Presbyterian Synod of Kentucky for the establishment of an academic school at West Liberty, Morgan county, which is to be a branch of Central University at Danville. Rev. Dr. W. C. Clark of Augusta is one of the incorporators.

Miss Rose Peterson, Secretary Parkdale Tennis Club, Chicago, from experience advises all young girls who have pains and sickness peculiar to their sex, to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many beautiful young girls develop into worn, listless and hopeless women, simply because sufficient attention has not been paid to their physical development. No woman is exempt from physical weakness and periodic pain, and young girls just budding into womanhood should be carefully guided physically as well as morally. Another woman,

Miss Hannah E. Mershon, Collingswood, N.J., says:

"I thought I would write and tell you that, by following your kind advice, I feel like a new person. I was always thin and delicate, and so weak that I could hardly do anything. Menstruation was irregular.

"I tried a bottle of your Vegetable Compound and began to feel better right away. I continued its use, and am now well and strong, and menstruate regularly. I cannot say enough for what your medicine did for me."

—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will cure any woman in the land who suffers from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, and kidney troubles.

HEALTHY MOTHERS.

Mothers should always keep in good bodily health. They owe it to their children. Yet it is no unusual sight to see a mother, with babe in arms, coughing violently and exhibiting all the symptoms of a consumptive tendency. And why should this dangerous condition exist, dangerous alike to mother and child, when Dr. Roscoe's German Syrup would put a stop to it at once? No mother should be without this old and tried remedy in the house—for its timely use will promptly cure any lung, throat or bronchial trouble in herself or her children. The worst cough or cold can be speedily cured by German Syrup; so can hoarseness and congestion of the bronchial tubes.
